Life Centers Accredited by National Financial Accountability Organization

INDIANAPOLIS— The Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability (ECFA) has announced the accreditation of Life Centers, a nonprofit organization with seven pregnancy resource centers in Central Indiana.

“This membership reflects the fact that we place high priority on being transparent in our operations, and we take our stewardship responsibilities seriously,” said Brian Boone, Life Centers president and CEO.

ECFA accreditation is based on the ECFA Seven Standards of Responsible Stewardship™, including financial accountability, transparency, sound board governance and ethical fundraising.

Life Centers joins a growing number of churches and evangelical organizations across America that are supported by over 35 million donors and have earned the right to display the ECFA seal.

Life Centers (www.lifecenters.com) offers free services such as pregnancy tests, ultrasounds, peer counseling, medical referrals, maternity support and baby care items to women facing unplanned pregnancies. Last year more than 300 volunteers and staff administered over 21,000 free services to women and their families.

To learn more about Life Centers and their stewardship opportunities, visit ServantMatch™, ECFA’s newest online program that matches Christian donors with the stewardship options of ECFA members based on ministry sectors and categories.

ECFA, founded in 1979, provides accreditation to leading Christian nonprofit organizations that faithfully demonstrate compliance with the ECFA Standards pertaining to financial accountability, fund-raising and board governance.
